In Re: Dr. Scott Swerdlin

C11-027

Public Report and Finding of Probable Cause

COMPLAINANT, Carole Coleman, filed the above-referenced COMPLAINT on December 21, 2011, alleging a possible ethics violation involving RESPONDENT Dr. Scott Swerdlin, Chairman of the Wellington Equestrian Preserve Committee (EPC).

The COMPLAINT alleges three Code of Ethics violations involving a meeting of the EPC on December 14, 2011.

COUNT 1 alleges that RESPONDENT misused his official position by participating in a matter before the EPC that would result in a special financial benefit to his customer or client, Equestrian Sports Production and/or Mark Bellissimo, applicant for the Equestrian Village Project, before the EPC for an advisory vote prior to consideration by the Village of Wellington Council. RESPONDENT disputes this allegation.

COUNT 2 alleges that RESPONDENT corruptly attempted to secure a special privilege, benefit, or exemption for himself and/or his customer or client, Equestrian Sports Production and/or Mark Bellissimo, with wrongful intent, in a manner inconsistent with the proper performance of Respondent's public duties. RESPONDENT disputes this allegation.

COUNT 3 alleges that RESPONDENT, after having been admonished by the Village of Wellington Attorney that a conflict of interest under the Code of Ethics requires abstention from both voting and participating in the matter before the EPC, did significantly participate prior to ultimately abstaining from voting in the matter. In addition, after abstaining, RESPONDENT allegedly failed to file a state conflict of interest Form 8B as required under the Code of Ethics. RESPONDENT disputes this allegation.

Pursuant to Chapter 8, Article XIII, Section 2-443(a), Misuse of public office of employment prohibits a public official or employee from using their official position to take any action, or to influence others to take any action, in a manner which he or she knows or should know, will result in a special financial benefit, not shared by members of the general public, for any person or entity listed in §2-443(a)(1-7), including him or herself, an outside business or employer or a customer or client of their outside business or employer.

Article XIII, Section 2-443(b), Corrupt misuse of official position prohibits any official or employee from using his or her official position or office, or any property or resource which may be within his or her trust, to corruptly secure or attempt to secure a special privilege, benefit, or exemption for himself, herself, or others. For the purposes of this subsection, “corruptly” means done with a wrongful intent and for the purpose of obtaining, or compensating or receiving compensation for, any benefit resulting from some act or omission of an official or employee which is inconsistent with the proper performance of his or her public duties.

Pursuant to Chapter 8, Article XIII, §2-443(c), an official shall abstain from voting and not participate in any matter that will result in a special financial benefit for him or herself, an outside business or employer or customer or client of his or her outside business or employer. A customer or client is an entity to which the official’s outside business or employer has provided goods or services in excess of $10,000 in the aggregate during the 24 months preceding the official action taken. The official must not only publicly disclose the nature of the conflict when abstaining, but must also file a conflict of interest Form 8B pursuant to the requirements of §112.3143, Florida Statutes, and submit a copy to the Commission on Ethics.

Pursuant to Chapter 2, Article V, Division 8, Section 2-258(a)¹ of the Palm Beach County Code of Ethics, the Commission on Ethics is empowered to enforce the county code of ethics.

¹ Article V, Division 8, section 2-258(a). Powers and Duties. The commission on ethics shall be authorized to exercise such powers and shall be required to perform such duties as are hereinafter provided. The commission on ethics shall be empowered to review, interpret, render advisory opinions and enforce the:

- (1) Countywide Code of Ethics;
- (2) County Post-employment Ordinance; and
- (3) County Lobbyist Registration Ordinance

On January 30, 2012, the COMPLAINT was determined by staff to be LEGALLY SUFFICIENT. The matter had been brought to the attention of COE staff by a formal complainant and pursuant to COE Rule of Procedure 4.1.3 a preliminary inquiry was commenced. After obtaining sworn statements from material witnesses and documentary evidence sufficient to warrant a legally sufficient finding a MEMORANDUM OF LEGAL SUFFICIENCY was filed and a preliminary investigation commenced pursuant to Article V, Division 8, Section 2-260(d). Information obtained during the inquiry was adopted into the investigation and presented to the Commission on Ethics on March 1, 2012 with a recommendation that PROBABLE CAUSE exists that a code of ethics violation occurred. At that time, the Commission conducted a PROBABLE CAUSE hearing in executive session. The Commission reviewed and considered the investigative report, documentary submissions, recommendation of staff, written response of the RESPONDENT as well as oral statements of the RESPONDENT and ADVOCATE. At the conclusion of the hearing the Commission on Ethics determined that there are reasonably trustworthy facts and circumstances for the COMMISSION ON ETHICS to believe that the RESPONDENT may have violated §2-443(a)(COUNT 1), §2-443(b)(COUNT 2) and §2-443(c)(COUNT 3) of the Palm Beach County Code of Ethics and a final hearing will be set in order to determine whether a violation(s) occurred.

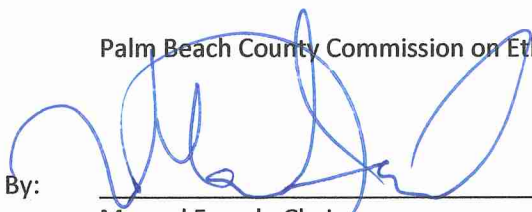

Therefore it is:

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED THAT PROBABLE CAUSE exists and the COMPLAINT against RESPONDENT, Dr. Scott Swerdlin, is hereby set for FINAL HEARING on June 15, 2012.

DONE AND ORDERED by the Palm Beach County Commission on Ethics in public session on March 1, 2012.

Palm Beach County Commission on Ethics,
